

Volume III

Introduction: “To varying degrees, all thought involves imagination: the two [science and the imagination] are complimentary and shed light on each other.” Clyde Coreil

- 1. Multiple Intelligences and Second Language Acquisition
Mary Ann Christison
- 2. Spellbound in the Language Class: A Strategy of Surprise
Gertrude Moskowitz
- 3. The Imagination: Where Roles and Images Reside
Robert Landy
- 4. The Imagination and CD-ROM: Multimedia Language and Cultural Instruction
Thomas J. Garza
- 5. Reel Talk: Movies, Values, and Language Acquisition
Kara Griffin
- 6. Thematic Photographs: From Past Lives to Creative Writing
Larry Carter
- 7. De-Mythicizing the Research Paper
Barbara Guenther
- 8. See It! Tell It! Write It!
Kathleen Mata
- 9. Making a Song and Dance: The Musical Voice of Language
Paul Newham
- 10. Grandma Moses Meets ESL: Art for Speaking and Writing Activities
Claudia J. Rucinski-Hatch
- 11. On Creating Theatrical Collages with ESL Students
Rhonda Naidich
- 12. The Creative Connection in Movies and TV: What “Degrassi High Teaches Teachers”
Jim Ward and Suzanne Lepeintre
- 13. Cultural Artifacts
Joshua Dale
- 14. Graphics from the Front: Artistry in Language Teaching
Susan Gill
- 15. Writing in Music
Sharon Myers

16. Novels and Films: A Dynamic Double Feature

Leslie Criston

17. Getting Imaginative in the Language Laboratory

Darci L. Strother

18. Creating Theater in the ESL Classroom

Maria Guida