

Volume VI

Introduction: Imagination includes “psychological aspects of young children communicating through play while their lexicon develops.” Clyde Coreil

- 1. On the Educational Uses of Fantasy
Geoffrey Madoc-Jones and Kieran Egan
- 2. The Dangers of Empathy with Students
Mario Rinvoluceri
- 3. The Magic of Folktales for Teaching English and Culture
Planaria Price
- 4. The Inner Voice: A Critical Factor in L2 Learning
Brian Tomlinson
- 5. Dance: An Inspiration for Language in the ESL Classroom
Carolee Bongiorno
- 6. Reader’s Theatre: An Introduction to Classroom Performance
Gerald Lee Ratliff
- 7. *Novels and Films in the Elementary School
Foreign Language Class*
Jacqueline Garcon
- 8. Using Poetry to Build Classroom Communities
C. Hood Frazier
- 9. Literary Pantomimes: Students’ Dynamic Creations
John Joseph Courtney
- 9. The Power of Dramatizing Case Studies in ESP
Russell Dinapoli
- 10. English through Opera
Ninah Belavsky
- 11. The Dress-up Biography in ESL Reading
Denise Lagos and Susan Khodabakshi
- 12. The Emotions: A Vocabulary before Language
James E. Lennon and Paul Barbaro
- 13. Choice+Interest = Enthusiasm for Target Language
Greg Briscoe
- 14. The Fun Hypothesis: Creative Language in the EFL Class
Laura Renart
- 15. Neuro-Linguistic Programming: A Basis for Language Learning
Marion H. Love

16. Using the Native Language Imaginatively in Foreign Language Learning
Hana Zofkova